

Please do not change the wisconsin No Call List. It is nice not having companies call all the time trying to get me to switch back or try their service instead. I use to have to screen my call. Now only once in a great while does a telemarketer slip through. It is nice not have the interruption in an otherwise busy life.